Detroit Metro welcomes new airlines and millions in revenue

By AMANDA WILSON
ANP Staff Writer

Millions of dollars new revenue may be arriving in the area along with the flights of a new international airline at Detroit Metropolitan area.

The United States Department of Transportation (DOT) recently announced the decision to grant authority for KLM Royal Dutch Airlines to begin regular, direct, non-stop flights between Amsterdam, Netherlands and Detroit. The transition should take place within 90 days.

"This is the news we have been waiting for," stated Wayne County Executive Edward H. McNamara. "We have been working hard on a strategic plan to attract more international service to Detroit Metropolitan Wayne County Airport. This is our first foreign flag route since initiating that endeavor."

KLM will be flying a Boeing 747 combination passenger/cargo aircraft. This plane has the ability to seat 281 passengers and carry 40 tons of cargo. They plan to fly twice a week and may soon expand to a daily schedule.

County officials selected Washington D.C.-based Kurth and Company, an aviation marketing and management firm, to assist in making the best possible case for DOT approval.

"Our consultant has advised us that service between a U.S. city and a European hub, assuming a 747 aircraft with daily flights, can result in a total favorable economic impact upwards of $270 million annually for the United States, most of it in the local economy," stated Robert Braun, Wayne County Director of Airports. "Of course KLM will not start out with daily flights, but a 747 can transport considerably more passengers and cargo."

The move was also supported by many Michigan business and civic leaders who wrote to the DOT Secretary Samuel Skinner at the urging of McNamara.

"In an era when Wayne County and Michigan are searching for economic diversification, we can do nothing better than to encourage the development of increased international airline service," McNamara stated. "The economic benefits to the region are enormous."

Winner

12-year-old marks third win

By AMANDA WILSON
ANP Staff Writer

Twelve-year-old Justin Pitel of Romulus may be playing football with the Detroit Lions again this year.

As first place winner in the 5th annual Punt, Pass and Kick Contest, he and four other Romulus youngsters have a chance to make it to the "big time."

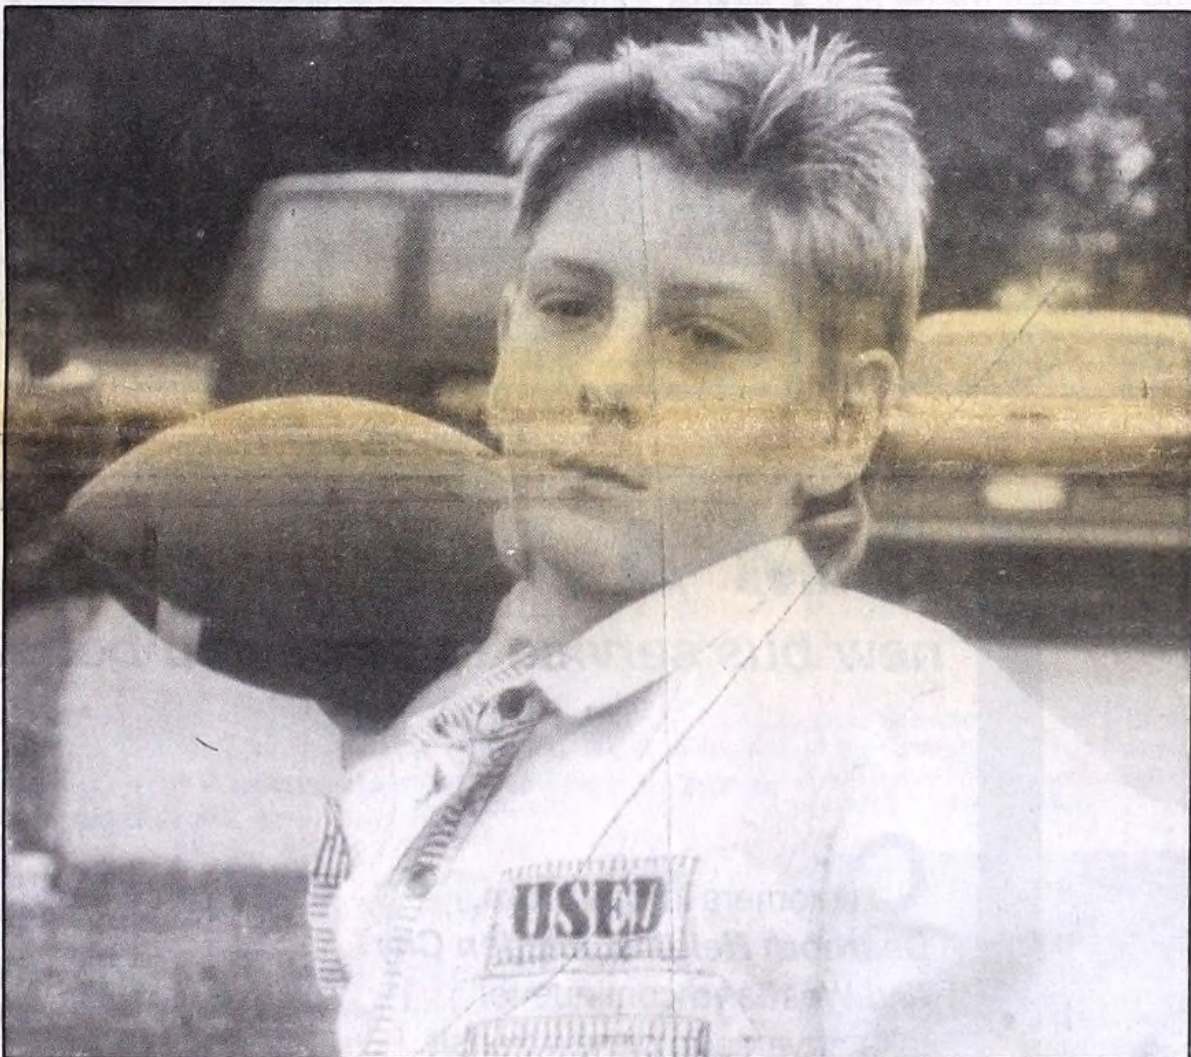

Pitel has already made it there twice in the past.

"If you win the competition, you get to meet the Lions and I met them twice already - when I was nine and last year," said Pitel. "I hope I get to do it again this year."

After placing first in their age category for Romulus, each of the kids will go on to a regional competition to compete with children from 13 other area cities.

"There are ten different regionals held throughout the state and the winners in each age group get a chance to compete against kids throughout the state," said Tina Bertschinger, coordinator with the Romulus Recreation Department.

The competition is sponsored to allow youngsters from ages 8 to 13 to show their talents in punting, passing and place kicking with scores based on accuracy and distance.

Local competitions began Sept. 9 and will continue through Oct. 5. Top finishers in Romulus will be competing in regional in Homer Howard Park-Doyle Field at 1 p.m. Oct. 20.

"Top finishers from that competition will then go to state finals at the Silverdome as part of a Detroit Lions game," Bertschinger said.

The Punt, Pass and Kick Competition is sponsored by Gatorade and the National Football League as well as the Michigan Recreation and Park Association and the Romulus Recreation Department.

"The contest makes for good competition," Pitel said. "It's a good experience and a lot of fun."

Other Romulus winners in the competition included Joshua Williams, 8; Steven Usher, 9; Alfred Chadwick, 10; and Steve Bednar, 11. They will also be competing in the regionals.

Police question chicken abductor

One Romulus youth has begun to regret that his barbecued chicken is so irresistible.

According to police, Jermain Henley, 14, was barbecuing chicken at his mother's home in the 34400 block of Beverly Road when three young men came lurking around the grill.

Reports described one of the boys as a 13-year-old student at Romulus Junior High who "...kept asking for a piece of chicken."

When Henley refused to share his dinner, the youth snatched a piece of the bird right off the grill, giving it to his two friends.

On the youth's attempt to reach for another piece, Henley blocked him, then found himself face to face with a handgun pulled from the waistband of the 13-year-old.

The youngster thrust the weapon "...two inches from Henley's face and said, 'I'll take a piece if I want one,'" reports say.

The boy then took a piece of chicken and ate it.

According to reports, a warrant issued Thursday in Wayne County Juvenile Court charges the 13-year-old with armed robbery and possession of a firearm during a felony in this Sept. 1 incident.

Wall-shattering thieves sought by local police

By AMANDA WILSON
ANP Staff Writer

It was hardly business as usual in Romulus last week.

A rash of five robberies in two nights were reported from businesses on Merriman Road between Smith and Ecorse roads, according to police. And in two of the five, burglars entered through the wall rather than a door or window, according to police.

"Three of the entries were in a strip mall where the thief or thieves apparently broke a lock to enter through one front door, then broke holes in the walls to enter the other two," said

Romulus Police detective Lt. Kenneth Kraus.

The first two thefts were reported Wednesday morning and apparently occurred Tuesday night after the businesses closed. Thursday morning, there were reports that three others along the same street had been broken into Wednesday night.

An undisclosed amount of cash was reported stolen in each case, police said.

Police currently have no leads and no witnesses have been produced. Information regarding the incidents should be referred to the detective bureau at 941-8400.

Pilot lauded in landing

By AMANDA WILSON
ANP Staff Writer

The quick thinking and reaction of one pilot averted what could have been a tragedy at Detroit Metropolitan Airport last Friday.

Thanks to the alert mind of Capt. Jerry Hardesty, all 127 passengers and seven crew members aboard Flight 197 walked away from an emergency landing without a scratch.

"The pilot did an outstanding job," said Mike Duggan, deputy county executive for Wayne County. "It could have been a very dangerous situation, but everyone walked away safe."

The Continental Airlines 747 three-engine jet was bound from Metro to Denver when, shortly after the 4:30 p.m. takeoff, the crew noticed the landing gear had not retracted, according to Continental spokesman Richard Danforth. He commented that when the crew tried to retract it, the left main gear became stuck near the up position.

While assessing the situation, Hardesty, a 25-year Continental pilot veteran, continued to circle the airport for more than two hours to burn off fuel to lighten the plane for emergency landing, according to FAA officials.

He also contacted Continental Headquarters in Houston and the Boeing Co., based in Seattle, the manufacturer of the plane.

"We found out what our options were, and opted to make a wheels-up landing," Hardesty was reported as saying.

He then walked through the cabin to explain the emergency procedure to the passengers before making the landing at 6:50 p.m.

Official report that before the landing, emergency crews put fire-retardant foam on the runway. They said it took 8,000 feet of runway to stop the aircraft which finally came to rest after sparks began spraying from a dragging left wing.

Fortunately, there were no injuries, and, because the landing was so smooth, all on board able to exit the plane using the rear stairway instead of emergency chutes, officials said.

When later asked if he was afraid, Hardesty replied, "...never. We're trained to handle these situations." He went on to say "I'm not a hero."

"But many disagree. 'He did an absolutely tremendous job,' Danforth commented.

The emergency caused the airport to close for about 45 minutes. The 747 was cleared from the runway by Saturday.

Members of the National Transportation Safety Board continue to investigate the incident.

Area walkers take a step forward for world hunger

By JOAN DYER-ZINNER
Belleville City Editor

Romulus Mayor Beverly McAnally will be putting on her walking shoes, to join the mayor and city manager of Belleville and the Van Buren Township supervisor on a Sunday afternoon stroll this fall.

For the 10th year, members of Belleville area and Romulus churches will join together in a Crop Walk to alleviate world hunger. For the first time, Belleville Mayor Glenn Silvenis, City Manager Robert Herron, Van Buren Township Supervisor David Jacokes and McAnally will join the members of the participating churches in an effort to collect $15,000 in donations.

On Oct. 6, 200 walkers from seven churches will walk from St. Anthony's Catholic Church, Belleville, to Community United Methodist Church, Romulus, and back, approximately 11 miles. The walkers will solicit pledges for each mile walked, and the donations will be made to the 1991 Crop Walk.

Participating churches are St. Aloysius Catholic Church of Romulus, Community Methodist Church of Romulus, Belleville United Methodist Church, Trinity Episcopal Church of Belleville, Faith United Methodist Church of Denton, Belleville United Presbyterian Church and St. Anthony's.

"One-fourth of the money collected stays in the Belleville-Romulus region, and is donated directly to four area hunger agencies: St. Vincent de Paul, Belleville Emergency Food Closet, Romulus Helping Hand and Wayne-Metro Soup Kitchen," said the Rev. John Hagan of Trinity Episcopal Church who is coordinating the Crop Walk. "The remaining 75 percent of monies collected is sent to fight hunger throughout the United States and the world."

Donations will be sent to:

- United States for flood victims.
- Cambodia for self-help programs, blankets and help to displaced people.
- Liberia for vaccination programs, restoration of hospitals and clinics and medical supplies.
- Mexico to aid flood victims in Chihuahua with food, clothing and medicine.

- Nicaragua for seed money to establish a dairy herd and to improve child nutrition.
- Sudan for food, blankets and school kits.
- Vietnam for medicine, medical supplies and milk for flood victims.
- Middle East and Persian Gulf area to provide blankets, warm clothing and supplies to Kurdish and other refugees.

Area businesses are being solicited for donations, and those who contribute Church World Services/Crop Walk project will display red signs in their windows, according to Father Hagan. Walkers will be wearing donated Crop Walk hats.

"In 1990, 150 local people participated in the walk and more than $10,300 was collected. Our 1991 goal is 200 walkers and $15,000 in contributions," said Father Hagan.

Contributions may be sent to CWS/Crop, 11585 Belleville Road, Belleville, 48111-2401, and questions may be addressed to the coordinator at 699-3361.

Hard work pays off for local student

It pays to get good grades in high school, according to Robin Meriweather of Romulus.

For her outstanding academic and leadership achievements, Meriweather's first year of college has been paid for through scholarships, and she'd like her peers to know not to count themselves out when it comes to their college future.

She believes that anyone who's hard-working and dedicated may have a chance to win a scholarship, but said that those who really apply themselves are the ones who will go places.

"If you apply yourself and look hard, there are scholarships out there for you," said Jesse Meriweather, principal of Romulus Junior High Robin's proud father.

The principal suggests that high school students begin to look for scholarships by asking their school counselors.

"You have to be prepared to make it in a career today," Robin said. "If you believe in yourself and really try, you Robin Meriweather have a good chance to go places."

Hugh Hurlburt, 93, and Frank Andrews, 91, two of the oldest veterans in Romulus had the honor of breaking ground for the planned Romulus Veterans Memorial. Construction on the memorial is scheduled to begin next spring. An unveiling ceremony of the completed model is set for July 4, 1992.

Unexpected guests cause 'buzz'

By AMANDA WILSON
ANP Staff Writer

Jack Clark of Romulus awoke to find about 5,000 unexpected guests in his front yard this week.

Guests that could be considered silent but deadly.

"I just happened to look up and there they were," he said. "I didn't see them there yesterday so they must have built their house overnight."

The "house" he speaks of is about the size of four basketballs, he said. It's a hornet nest, housing a colony of more than 5,000 hornets.

"This is a very big season for hornets," said Gary Maples, owner of Maples Environmental Pest Control of Westland. "I've already done about 30 to 40 hornet exterminations this year, most of them lately."

He said fall is normally the season for hornets and yellow jackets, but they'll be especially active this year because the summer season was longer than usual.

"Usually, Michigan has short seasons, but we had an early summer this year which has allowed pests more time to develop," Maples said.

If they get mad, they will come after you. And they can be deadly.

— Gary Maples
pest control
service owner

Hornets and yellow jackets live in colonies within nests built above or below ground and are characterized by their colors of mostly yellow or black. Their nests consist of several tiers or circular layers of cells enclosed within a grayish paper covering with an entrance on the underside.

The adult of the species is capable of both stinging and biting, both of which can be very painful and, in some cases, fatal.

Although reports show that it would take about 500 stings delivered in a short period of time to provide a lethal dose to a human being, there are many who are allergic to the venom produced by a hornet or bee, and those people may develop severe reactions that demand immediate treatment.

Symptoms of an allergic reactions include massive swelling, redness, vomiting, rapid heart beat or trembling. If a person is not allergic to the sting, local symptoms should disappear after a 24-hour period.

If you have a nest in your yard, it may be best to call an exterminator. Many will give free estimates and arrive soon after the call.

In the meantime, Maples warned that hornets and yellow jackets are extremely aggressive and should not be provoked.

"If they get mad, they will come after you," he said. "And they can be deadly."

Clark has not yet decided whether or not to have the colony building in his yard exterminated. He realizes that if he does, the nest may be ruined.

"I might just wait until the cooler weather when the hornets move out to remove the nest so I can donate it to the local schools for the kids to study," Clark said.

Winner shares talent

By AMANDA WILSON
ANP Staff Writer

Garnet Zilka of Romulus is one who likes to take the time to smell the roses. To plant and raise them too.

For her beautifully-cut hybrid apricot tea roses, she won first place in the Best of Flowers category in the 1991 Wayne County Fair.

And that's not all she won. For her talent in creating a very unique ceramic, she won a gold ribbon, which put her in competition for best ceramic in the state.

Although that's all behind now, Zilka continues to work to create the "best," and to share her ideas with others.

"I enjoy working with people and teaching them the joy of art - especially seniors," she said.

Now working at the Restoration Tower in Detroit as activities coordinator, Zilka teaches classes in ceramics, painting and many other arts.

"They get so much out of making things for members of their family that it makes the effort all worthwhile," she said.

Zilka has been firing and painting her own ceramics for almost 20 years. She enjoys the feeling of accomplishment as each piece is finished and takes pride in her unique work.

"I make only usable items, not dust collectors," she said. "And each item I make is customized with a unique design or saying."

Her specialties are night lights, statues and cups with personal messages. She takes many of these to bazarrs and also enjoys taking special orders and making gifts for friends.

In the fair competition this year, she won with a creation of a sculptured night light.

"I molded clay around a coffee can and sculptured a scene with a barn, a tree and a creek that I later painted," she said. "I won with a similar creation four years ago, so I guess people really like the idea."

Zilka will continue to pass on her ideas and work on new creations throughout the winter, but spring will find her again working in her yard at her "100-acre family homestead" in Romulus.

"The land has been in my husband Leonard's family for 100 years, and I've been working on the yard for the 35 I've been living here," she said. She wants to keep it looking good for Zilkas of the future.

Talent show set at South

Local talent will provide an evening of entertainment on Oct. 11 when students of Tom Sparks present their 1991 recital at South Middle School.

"We'll have youngsters as young as 3 and 4, and performers in their 60s," said Golda Sparks. "All of them have taken lessons at Sparks Music, and are ready to show their talents. We have three youngsters performing who won prizes at the recet fairs plus an 11-year-old who is going to sing a song from Phanton of the Opera."

Sparks also expects to hear renditions of Elvira and Harper Valley P.T.A. at the Oct. 11 event, which begins at 5 p.m.

"Our students will be performing contemporary, country, rock and gospel music," Sparks said. "As a special feature, Van Buren Public Schools Superintendent James Richendollar will play the spoons and Haggerty Elementary School Principal William Chizmar will sing and play the guitar."

Phil Lewis and the Country Knights, all former students of Tom Sparks, will be the featured performers.

Additional information on the free event is available by calling 697-5119.

Superintendent James Richendollar will be playing spoons when South Middle School hosts the Oct. 11 talent show. Pupils of Tom Sparks will perform at the event. ANP file photo

Area police file report

In a report to the Van Buren Township Board, Public Safety Director Mark Perkins noted reductions in several classifications.

Perkins reported 95 motor vechicle accidents in June, 1991, compared to 122 in June, 1990. Ten arson fires were recorded in June, 1991, compared to 21 in the same month last year.

Criminal damage to property cases were 35, compared to 41 last year. Thirty-two grand larcenies were recorded this June, compared to 45 last year, and 14 petty larcenies were reported in June, 1991, compared to 19 in the previous June.

The number of sexual offences dropped from six in 1190 to three in 1991.

Missing persons cases remained the same at 10.

Both aggravated and non-aggravated assults increased in 1991 from four to 10 and from 11 to 31, respectively.

Senior group gains service

Some 2,500 people received services from September Days Senior Center in June.

The total includes 800 senior citizens who received newsletters, 519 people who had on-site meals and 761 senior citizens who received home-delivered meals, according to Director Jennifer DeLano. In addition, 176 people participated in educational programs and 134 took part in recreational activities in June.

A total of 19,745 persons have been served in the Van Buren Township-based program in 1991.

Children's story hours to start soon

By JOAN DYER-ZINNER

Pool player manages to earn top honors

By JOAN DYER-ZINNER
Belleville City Editor

When Maggie Grills is "pool-side," it means she's at the billiard table, not in a deck chair by the swimming pool.

The versatile Van Buren Township woman is manager of the Southport Apartments and an active member of the Belleville Area Chamber of Commerce as well as a member of a state championship women's pool team.

"Eight years ago, I joined a club, and began to shoot pool there with the members. I thought it was fun, so I joined their team and played on it for three or four years," Grills said. "One of the girls asked me if I would like to join a ladies' league. I played on the league for two years and then joined an open league with both men and women."

Last year Grills returned to the women's league.

"I feel more comfortable in the women's league. It seems to be less stressful," Grills said. "Men tend to be better shooters, and they don't have as much confidence in the women team members. I felt worse on the open team when we lost, than I feel playing on a women's team."

However, Grills' team has a good record for wins, earning top honors in the city finals and the Busch Eight-Ball State Tournament in August to qualify for the U.S. National Invitational competition this fall.

"It will be five days of grueling competitions from 9 a.m. until 1 a.m. in St. Louis, Mo.," Grills said.

"I enjoy shooting pool. It's very relaxing as well as being challenging," Grills said. "I don't practice a lot. I just play once a week."

Grills, who was born in Sweden, wishes the pool halls in the U.S. were more like the billiard rooms in Europe.

"In Europe everyone plays a lot, and the billiard halls have a bit more style and class than most of those here, but there is a trend toward upgrading the U.S. pool halls," Grills said.

Always ready for a challenge, Grills entered the Belleville's Bureid Baubles treasure hunt earlier this month and captured third place.

"I was surprised to finish third. I spent about an hour searching for clues in a Belleville history book on the day of the hunt. I knew the answer to the question about the old business in Belleville, because I attended the 105th birthday party for The Enterprise last March," Grills said.

Grills, who resided in Canton Township for 11 years before moving to Belleville, is the mother of an 11-year-old daughter, Tanya.

Library seeks new friends

By JOAN DYER-ZINNER
Belleville City Editor

As the Fred C. Fischer Library begins expansion plans, its auxiliary is seeking ways to expand their circle of members.

Supported by contributions from Belleville, Sumpter Township and Van Buren Township, the Fred C. Fischer Library has struggled to meet the growing needs of the community, but the budget has not provided sufficient funds for non-essential programs. The Friends of the Fred C. Fischer Library was formed to fill those needs, according to the membership committee.

The library group has sponsored an Artist of the Month show, brought Michigan authors and speakers to the area, bought books on tape and provided funds for children's programs through membership fees and used book sales. In addition, the group has beautified the courtyard with flowering bulbs and plants.

The organization has received, administered and encouraged gifts, endowments and bequests on behalf of the library.

The Friends of the Fred C. Fischer Library is a non-profit organization. Contributions to the library are tax deductible.

Annual memberships are available for students and senior citizens for $3, individuals for $10, families for $15 and businesses and organizations for $25. Lifetime memberships are available for $250.

Applications for membership and contributions may be sent to the Friends of the Fred C. Fischer Library, 167 Fourth St., Belleville, Mich. 48111.

CATARACT FACTS

Many people think that a cataract is a film growing over the eye. Actually, a cataract is a clouding of the normal human lens inside our eye, behind the pupil.

Cataracts seem to be part of the aging process, although they can occur in young persons. Cataracts are more common in parts of the world that receive a great deal of sunshine, such as India. We think that ultraviolet light from the sun may tend to cause cataracts.

There is no proven way to prevent cataracts, although some studies have been done to see if long-term use of aspirin will prevent cataract formation.

The cataract is removed through an incision on the eye which is less than half an inch long. After the clouded human lens is removed, a plastic lens, called a lens implant, measuring less than 1/4 inch, is placed in the eye.

Nowadays lens implants are not "sewn" into the eye. They have flexible plastic "legs" which hold them permanently in place.

Some eye surgeons are using lens implants with an ultraviolet absorbing tint in them, to protect the eye from the harmful rays of the sun.

Hearing specialist is certified

The National Board of Certification in Hearing Instrument Sciences recently announced Hazel Maluzhinsky, owner of the Advanced Hearing Instruments at 34914 west Michigan Ave. in Wayne, has successfully completed the NBC-HIS National Competency examination. Completing this exam grants the hearing aid specialist the designation of Board Certified in Hearing Instrument Sciences. In order to become Board Certified in Hearing Instrument Sciences, a hearing aid specialist must have two years practical experience including 100 hours of hands-on training in the testing of hearing and fitting hearing instruments. This exam measures an individual's skills against a pre-determined level of competency. The five steps of competency are: maintaining professional records, performance of hearing tests, evaluating hearing tests, fitting of hearing instrument and communication skill with clients. The National Board for Certification in Hearing Instrument Science is a certifying agency fully accredited by the National Commission of Certifying Agencies in Washington D.C. The commission is the only organization that sets, applies and promotes comprehensive standards for credentialing professions and occupations in the nation. Maluzhinsky welcomes questions regarding hearing health. Anyone interested can call her at 326-3430 or 284-0695.

More Detroit suburban shoppers

The SPRING Newspapers' circulation more than doubles the daily suburban circulation of either The Detroit News or Free Press.

In fact, SPRING's suburban circulation is greater than the two metro dailies' combined.

And that's not all.

According to the 1991 Belden study, SPRING reaches more of the affluent suburban shoppers who have more—and spend more.

► 152,700 more suburban buyers of women's fashions than the daily News (78,600 more than the Free Press).

► 145,700 more suburban buyers of men's fashions than The News (64,500 more than the Free Press).

► 115,900 (and 63,600) more suburban buyers of children's clothing.

► 177,100 (and 80,000) more suburban shoppers at malls.

Simply put, one order in SPRING delivers more. Shouldn't you be advertising in SPRING more? To get all the facts, call your SPRING representative.

A method to the madness?

Enough is enough. Just how many so called "tax-reform plans" are taxpayers going to be faced with before the little worm of suspicion begins to know at our collective voting psyche?

We are beginning to have some doubts as to the sincerity and viability of many of these plans given the number are variety now under consideration in our state. There is the Headlee Tax Plan, there is the Engler Plan, there is the Democratic Reform Plan and the Republicans, too, have a plan in the works. Then we have plans for the redistribution of school tax base financing, plans to cut spending in nearly every state-funded area and even a plan to cut two state representatives from the legislature.

What is going on? Which plan is genuine? What are the differences between them? What do they mean?

Frankly, we wish we knew. We've talked to legislators, we've listened to the arguments and the presentations, we've read the literature mailed to us and we still don't understand what the meaning of several of these plans is or how it will affect the taxpayers in our area.

We have begun to seriously consider the possibility that this flurry of activity to cut taxes and reform spending is a plan to see that nothing actually happens. With this many proposals and this many plans, the discussion, the rhetoric and the "committee meetings" could last into infinity. Or at the very least until it is too late.

We urge the abandonment of petty, political concerns and loyalties and a combined and sincere effort to help those who need it so desperately in this time of economic uncertainty.

A good idea that may not work

"There are only two kinds of ideas. Good ideas that work and good ideas that don't."

Those sentiments, often expressed by a wise man we once knew, seem to exemplify the recent effort of the city of Inkster to attempt to franchise utilities within the municipality. On the surface, the logic of those most enthusiastic in the pursuit of this idea is sound, indeed. If, in fact, cable television companies pay a portion of the revenue from subscribers to the city as a fee for doing business within the boundaries, then why not other utility companies. The argument presently being put forth in support of the idea includes the claim that other cities in other states have undertaken this program effectively.

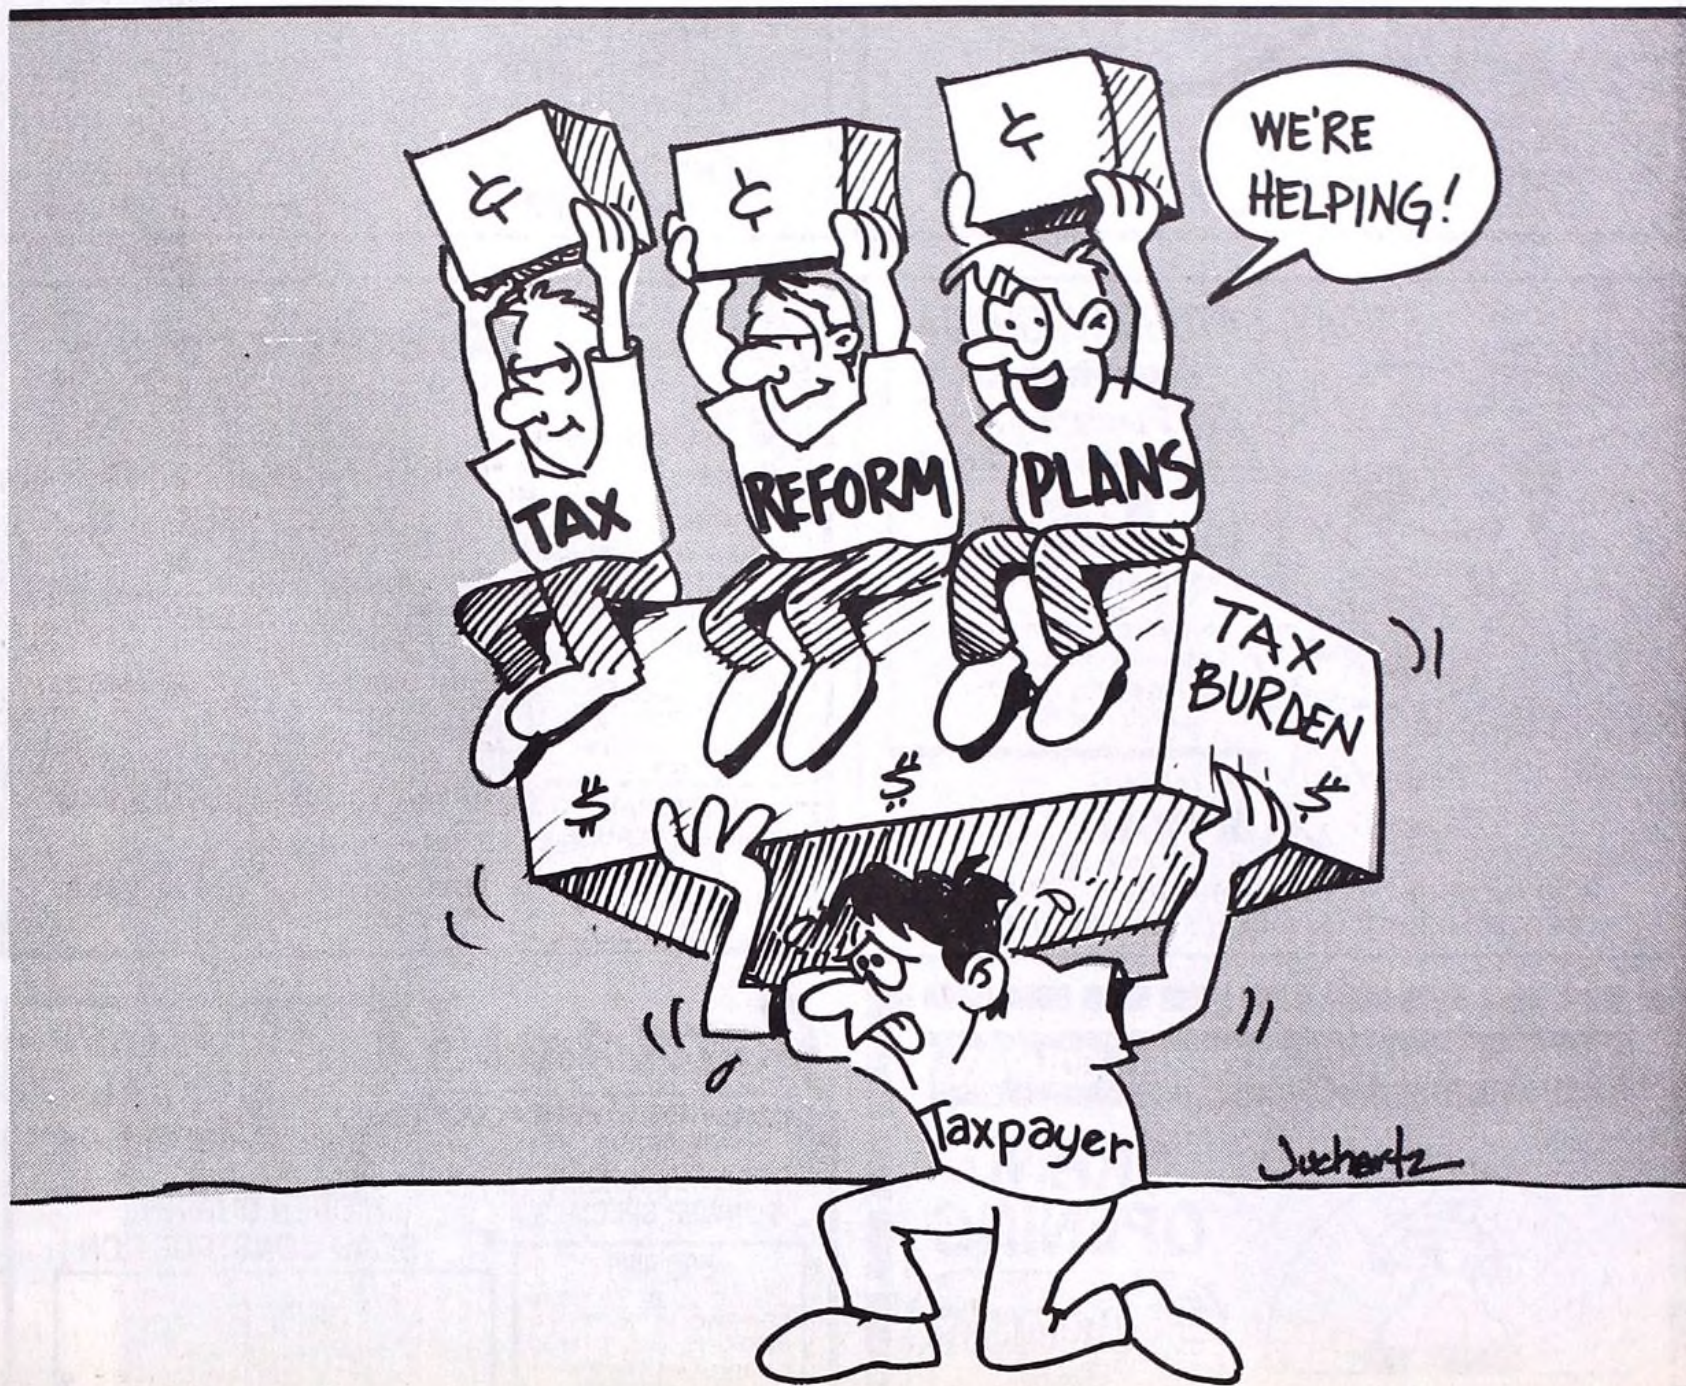

We see two flaws in the plan. First, who will pay this fee? On the surface, the claim is that the utility company will have to share a portion of the profits reported at the end of the year and take less, sending a check to the municipality. We don't think that's about to happen. Were this plan to become effective and the utility companies be forced to pay the city, we suspect there would be a rate increase to customers to cover not only the fee to the city but a bit more for the "administration" involved in record-keeping and check preparation.

Yes, we understand the role of the Public Service Commission in this, but if the utility companies present the franchise fee to the city as an expense, a rate increase would most likely be authorized by that commission, based on past performance.

Our second reason is quite simple. With cable companies, there are usually two or more bidders wishing to build the system and provide service to the city. As it is, there is no viable alternative to the present providers of telephone, electric and gas service to the city of Inkster. Why would these companies pay a franchise fee when if prohibited from providing service in the city, there simply wouldn't be any?

Can the city of Inkster exist without lights, water, heat and phones? Are the services of private utility companies available and is the cost fair to the residents?

This seems to be a good idea that will not work, although we would like nothing better than to be proven wrong in this situation.

Resident recalls city past

To the editor: During our yearly discussion about how unfair it is to no longer have the carnival at the Wayne Festival because of the inappropriate behavior of a few individuals, my 14-year-old daughter asked me, "Why on earth did we ever move to Wayne in the first place?"

Upon reflection, I realized that my first exposure to Wayne was through carnivals. As a teenager, raised in Dearborn, I looked forward to Wayne carnivals and attended often with my friends. When I was newly married and we were looking for housing we could afford, we were again drawn to Wayne and the promises of urban renewal.

Wayne's small downtown area, though old, was alive and vital. Many shops and friendly merchants were happily supported because they offered the goods and services our family needed and desired. I remember how often a unique gift from Mulhollonds was the hit of the baby shower. Sidewalk sales were a high point of summer, with quality goods and great prices. Our three older daughters attended Wayne's growing community-supported school system and enjoyed the events offered through the parks and recreation department and spent day after lazy summer day at the Wayne pool.

Much has happened in the city in the 30 years since we chose to move here. We have a new city hall, new court, improved police station to name a few, and a parking garage that is a great community joke. But, for the most part the stores and businesses are gone, the list too long to mention, much of the small industry is gone also. Support for and confidence in the school system is severely eroded. The swimming pool is gone, and so too are the carnivals.

Would I choose to live in Wayne again today? That is a good question.

Holiday not always joyful

To the editor: I want to thank (Belleville City Editor Joan Dyer) for the article on Grandparents' Day in our Sunday paper.

You have told how important grandparents are to the lives of their grandchildren and vice-versa.

This is true, but did you know some grandparents are denied the opportunity to visit, call or in any way enjoy the growing up of their grandchildren?

This has happened to me. I belong to a support group for grandparents in the same situation. Grandparents for Children's Rights. For many, Grandparents' Day is not the happy holiday it should be.

Support urged for Brady Bill

To the editor: 1990 ushered in a new decade by breaking a frightening record: 23,438 Americans were murdered last year—more than in any single year of the previous decade, according to the FBI Uniform Crime Report. Firearms were the weapon of choice in nearly 60 percent of the murders.

It becomes harder and harder to rationalize the growing violence around us when we realize that the areas with the fastest-rising levels of crime are rural states, according to a recent Senate Judiciary Committee Report. Nebraska, Colorado, Kansas, Arkansas, Iowa and Oklahoma, among others, all had higher increases in the rate of crime than did New York City last year.

Ten years ago, while serving as press secretary to President Ronald Reagan, I was shot in the head by a man who easily purchased a handgun over-the-counter.

This year, Congress passed a bill requiring a waiting period and background check for the purchasers of handguns—a proposal long-advocated by law enforcement officers nationwide. The measure, known as the Brady Bill, will soon go to President Bush's desk. But, the hardcore gun lobby continues to fight the Brady Bill, and is vigorously lobbying President Bush to veto this life-saving measure.

President Bush needs to hear from us—the other guys; the folks without millions of dollars or armies of lobbyists. I have a fast and easy way for you to send a message to the president. Just call 1-900-226-4455 and leave your name and address. A letter will be sent in your name to the president letting him know you support the Brady Bill. The call will only take two minutes and the $2.75 cost will appear on your phone bill.

We can quell the random violence which threatens each and every one of us. We can make our neighborhoods safer.

Viewpoints: Do you think billboards should be removed from highways?

David Brown
Inkster

No, they should advertise. If I'm traveling, I need to know where gas stations and such are along the expressway.

Linda Hauser
Belleville

Yes, in a way I do. A lot of them are for liquor, but we can't put up a picture supporting God. I don't feel they should be advertising something harmful.

Pamela Dines

Rockets remain on track

Glenn puts 3-game win streak on the block against Salem

By TERRY LYNCH
ANP Special Writer

Coaches usually like to point out that one game doesn't make a season.

But don't tell that to Westland John Glenn football Coach Chuck Gordon, who is preparing his undefeated Rockets for what may be the biggest game of the 1991 campaign.

With three victories behind them, Glenn will meet a 1-2 Plymouth Salem Friday night on the Rocket field.

That one game could decide whether the Westlanders remain in the title race and/or if they will qualify for the post-season playoffs.

"They took two tough losses to two very good teams," Gordon stressed about his arch rival, Salem. "They are the best team we will face so far."

And Friday also happens to be Homecoming for Rocket fans - you know this one is a big one.

A Glenn victory over Coach Tom Moshimer's Rocks could go a long way toward a Glenn repeat of the Lakes Division championship.

Glenn is coming off of an impressive 35-13 victory over Livonia Stevenson, a divisional opponent, while Salem sustained its second loss in three

"We felt our backs ran very hard- something we had asked from them and there was blocking up front that helped tremendously."

— Chuck Gordon
Football Coach

starts against North Farmington.

In a hard-hitting battle, the Rockets managed to grab an early lead and easily defeated the Spartans, who entered the duel with a perfect 2-0 record.

Senior fullback Ed Jenis, who got the Rockets ignited in the first quarter when he broke loose and dashed 83 yards for a touchdown and a 7-0 lead.

Before he finished the day, the senior FB had racked up 111 yards on seven carries.

In the second quarter, the Rockets added a pair of TDs on a 4-yard run by senior running back Tad Quattlander and an 8-yarder by John Ward.

At halftime, Gordon and his gridders strolled into the locker room to discuss a 21-0 lead.

"We felt our backs ran very hard - something we had asked from them," Gordon said. "And there was blocking up front that helped tremendously."

Stevenson broke the ice in the third quarter when quarterback Ryan Furkas found an unprotected target and lofted a TD strike that put the Spartans on the board for the first time.

Glenn replied with QB Terry Hewer turning an excellently-executed option into a 36-yard touchdown sprint to put his team up, 35-7.

A late Spartan score rounded out the scoring, 35-7.

Although pleased with the overall team performance, Gordon said that the tackling has to improve for Salem.

"If we don't tackle better than we did last week, it could be a long night. That's something we will have to concentrate upon."

Gordon also feels that the Rockets must stop Salem senior running back Leon Hister, who the Rocket coach believes "is one of the best ball carriers around."

Game time is 7:30 tomorrow night at Glenn.

Tankers go for the gold

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

Some of the best high school swimmers and divers in the area will go for the gold when Wayne Memorial hosts its annual invitational.

The invitational will be staged tomorrow and Saturday at the Wayne Memorial swim pool.

"We have an excellent field of women swimmers again this year," said Wayne coach Randy Ferguson. "It's a balanced field, but I have to believe that the defending champ (Thurston) and Franklin have the talent to take it all."

Joining the two favorites and the host for the quest of medals also are Allen Park, Garden City, Wyandotte and Belleville.

The preliminaries for the swimming events are scheduled for 4 p.m. tomorrow, while the championships will be decided beginning at 1 p.m. Saturday.

In the meantime, Wayne watched as its record dip to 1-3 overall and 0-2 in the Wolverine 'A' Conference as the Zebras came up short by four points against Wyandotte (94-90).

"They took a 40-22 lead after the first four events after our first relay was disqualified," Ferguson said. "We swam uphill the rest of the way, despite some record-setting and personal best performances."

Wayne captured a first on the diving boards thanks to Bridget Jones, who piled up 184.1 points. Dana Walls turned in a 6:15.8 to win the 500-yard freestyle, while Tiffany Morningstar was clocked in the winning time of 1:23.8 in the 100-yard breaststroke.

Wayne also took a first in the 400-yard freestyle relay as Melissa Kreklau, Tania Dobrowolski, Morningstar and Walls combined for a 4:30.8. Although the same foursome finished second in the 200-yard freestyle relay, their time of 1:58.2 eclipsed the previous school mark of 1:59.1 set a year ago.

Calling all Dolphins

The Dolphins Swim Club is looking for swimmers for the 1991-92 season.

The club, sponsored by the Wayne Parks and Recreation Department, is coached by Randy Ferguson and Carrie Basner.

Swimmers, ages 5 to 17 who reside in Wayne or attend Wayne Memorial, may register at the Wayne High swimming pool. They may sign up at 7 p.m. Sept. 30 or Oct. 2.

Further information may be obtained by telephoning 595-2244. There is a $25 per new swimmer registration fee.

Wyandotte ball carrier Keith Lukasik (32) helped his team avenge the loss last year to Wayne Memorial by rushing for 90 yards on 19 carries Friday night. The Bears' 21-7 victory snapped the Zebras' two-game winning streak, a streak that ended before the home crowd. In the photo below, Lukasik cradles the pigskin as Wayne defenders circle in for the kill. Wayne will attempt to rebound Friday night at Lincoln Park, a team that shares the conference lead with the Bears and Fordson. ANP photos by Deanne L. DeYonker/staff photographer.

Wyandotte shatters Wayne title dream

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

The dream of a Wolverine 'A' Conference football title for Wayne Memorial turned into a nightmare Friday night as defending champ, Wyandotte, shocked the host, 21-7 before the Zebras' home crowd.

The Wayne loss snapped the Zebras' modest two-game winning streak. But it also forced them into realization that undefeated Lincoln Park, which also covets the crown that Wyandotte wears, is next in line.

"Wyandotte dominated the line of scrimmage," Wayne coach Chuck Howton said. "The veteran Wayne coach need not say more."

The turning point in what was labeled a must game for both title aspirants came early. On their first possession, the Zebras turned the ball over via a fumble and that miscue apparently set the tone for the rest of the evening.

Bears' downed-lineman Joe Schrock sacked Wayne quarterback Jason Wetmore and the visitors got possession of the ball at the Wayne 45. Seven plays later, the visitors were on the scoreboard.

Wyandotte got another psychological lift in the waning minutes of the first half. With 11 seconds left, they got on the scoreboard again to take a 14-0 halftime lead.

The inability of Wayne to stop hard-running 6-3, 220-pound senior Keith Lukasik also helped in their demise. Lukasik checked into the locker room after the game with 90-yards on 19 attempts and one TD. Quarterback Scott Nagy also played havoc on the Wayne secondary, connecting on seven of 11 passes and hitting Scott Brewer for a 3-yard TD in those closing seconds of the second quarter.

Wayne averted the shutout in the fourth quarter when Wetmore, after a Bears' fumble on their own 25, came back with a 7-yard strike to Eric Bates.

Wayne obviously missed the running acumen of Germaine Ellis, who didn't dress against the Bears because of a shoulder injury sustained against Trenton. He could be in the lineup for Lincoln Park.

Romulus to test old foe, Adrian

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

In the back of the minds of many Romulus High football fans is the question: How would the Eagles fare if they had stayed in the South Central Conference this year?

The question, in part, will be answered Friday night when Coach Danny Henry and his Eagles host old SCC foe, Adrian. Adrian, 2-1 on the early season, is - would you believe - favored to win the SCC Conference title this year.

"Adrian also is the best team on our schedule this year," said Henry after his team held on to win their -again would you believe - fourth straight, 17-14, at the expense of Brooklyn Columbia.

Romulus also has to overcome a hang up it apparently has about Adrian. Like Adrian trounced them a year ago 24-0.

"This should be an interesting match-up," Henry said.

It also proved interesting against Brooklyn, a team outside of Jackson. And a team apparently, Henry admits, "We weren't ready to play."

"This is the first time this season we were not mentally ready for our opponents," Henry continued. "We made some key turnovers, like a fumble on the 20 in the second quarter. We didn't threaten the entire first half."

Romulus made its move late in the third quarter when quarterback Bob Bergeron fired a 20-yard touchdown pass to senior tailback Reggie Clemons with only 3 minutes left. Then Jon Devereaux kicked the point-after, making it a 7-0 game.

However, Brooklyn stunned Romulus' kickoff team when Chris Champanois returned the ball 82-yards for a touchdown. But Romulus middle linebacker Eric Love nailed the Brooklyn tailback before he managed to convert the two-point.

With less than 2 minutes left, Bergeron engineered a 62-yard sustained drive in seven plays that culminated with a 23-yard touchdown run by Clemons, who went off tackle and into the end zone.

A Bergeron to Chris Evans pass for 21 yards helped set up the second TD.

Devereaux again booted the extra point.

In the fourth quarter, the Eagles put what proved to be the winning points on the scoreboard thanks again to Devereaux, who booted a 32-yard field goal with 3 minutes remaining in the game.

Brooklyn, playing before a homecoming crowd, refused to quit. Running back Brent Leinbach came through with a sparkling 60-yard touchdown run and quarterback Bobbie Carr and Leinbach teamed up for the two-point conversion that closed the gap to a three-points.

But when the Eagles' Joel Elam grabbed the onside kick at the 40-yard line, Romulus had in its possession the ball and their fourth straight victory.

Remember folks, this is a team that didn't win a game in 1990.

Bergeron went seven of 17 for 104 yards in passing yardage while Clemons carried 23 times for 127 yards.

Evans had two catches for 43 yards.

"We played great defense," Henry said. "They gave away that kickoff return, and one big play, and they really didn't gain much. However, I always like to remind our players that 'the big play can beat you'."

Tiger Trauma: Offense is ailing

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

An ailing and listless Belleville will leap into the fire after being fried by Lincoln Park last week in the proverbial frying pan.

Shutout for the second week in a row, the Tigers dropped a 28-0 decision to Lincoln Park and now, as if things were bad enough for Coach Sam Villa and his gridders, they will face Dearborn Fordson on Friday.

And what has Villa have to say about the undefeated Tractors?

"They are very physical and come right at you," Villa said. "We need to get some offense out there and, right now, we're looking for some sort of minor miracle."

There were no miracles against Lincoln Park.

The Railsplitters, behind the aerial assault of junior quarterback Phil Barbosa, humbled Belleville before the home crowd.

Barbosa was on target with 10 of his 22 rockets for 138 yards and a touchdown. Along with Barbosa's deadly air game, Lincoln Park received an outstanding performance from running back Matt Horvart, who rushed for two touchdowns in 17 carries and 128 yards.

Belleville could only manage one first-down against their Wolverine 'A' Conference rivals. The nearest they got to the L.P. goal line was the 29, and the drive terminated there.

Belleville did receive a superb defensive effort from middle linebacker Darryl Montie and Ralph Truitt got the job done. However, with their lineup riddled with injuries, the Tigers could be easy pickings if they don't find replacements.

On the doubtful starting list included the injured Steve Wygonik, Jerry Carrico and Scott McGuire.

Gray is Medalist Tigers in middle of Jackson pack

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

Despite outstanding performances from Anne Gray and Carmelita Martell, Belleville was forced to settle for a 12th place team finish at the prestigious Jackson Invitational Women's Cross Country meet over the weekend.

Traverse City captured the first-place trophy with 41 points.

Gray, one of the premier runners in the area, toured the 5-kilometer course in 19:40, the fifth-best time of the meet.

"She ran a good race," said Belleville coach Sam Vicchy, "however, as a team, we were pounded pretty good over there. It was a tough meet, but I believe that's the only way our kids are going to learn - by running the best."

Belleville also produced a medalist in Martell, whose 20:09 gave her a 15th overall finish - the last place awarded a medal.

Other Belleville scorers included Rachel Hunter, 72nd (22:04); Jennifer Woodington, 102nd (23:24); Amy Fisher, 104th (23:25); Kelly Wauer, 109 (23:38); and Christie Maciejewski, 119th (24:24).

Belleville, which completed the 1990 campaign with an impeccable 12-0 dual meet record but finished second in the Wolverine 'A' Conference after losing to Trenton in the conference championships, launched the conference season Tuesday night.

Vicchy's runners were scheduled to run Wayne Memorial and Monroe in Monroe.

At Walled Lake Kidwell leads Tiger harriers

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

Belleville runners tuned up for the 1991 Wolverine 'A' Conference season with some of their best times of the year at the Walled Lake Invitational.

However, Tiger Coach Dave Medley has no visions of grandeur in a conference that is expected to be dominated by defending champ Monroe.

"They're the class in this league," Medley noted. "I expect them to run for the state title as well."

And what about the 1991 Tigers, coach?

"We have some individual talent, but the overall picture remains blurred."

Two reliable Belleville performers are Jason Kidwell and Gary Knowlton. Kidwell finished seventh with a 17:13 at the Walled Lake Invitational. He was a medalist in the 11-12 grade division. Belleville also finished 14th with Knowlton and Troy Adams was 16th overall.

Walled Lake Western won the invitational title with 36 points, 20 less than second-place finisher Novi. Following the leaders across the finish line were, in order: Farmington Harrison (79), Belleville (89), Waterford Kettering (184), Livonia Franklin (255), Northville (262), Mt. Clemens (268) and Walled Lake Central.

In the 9th-10th grade division, Belleville finished third (91), behind winner Walled Lake Western (61) and Redford Union (80). Other teams included Northville (136), North Farmington (150), Novi (189), Walled Lake Central (224) and Livonia Franklin (299).

The best of the Tiger underclassmen was Darren Hamilton, who was the sixth runner across the finish line (18:37).

Belleville awaits Fordson

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

Belleville High swim Coach Frank Vicchy and the Tigers will attempt to win their first Wolverine 'A' Conference dual swim meet of the season tonight at the expense of Dearborn Fordson.

Vicchy, who has taken over the team this season from Matt Kirschner, says the Tigers are making a lot of progress.

"We're heading in the right direction," Vicchy says. "We're dropping our times. Swimming faster than we have."

The Tigers will carry a 2-2 overall record into the 7 p.m. meet. They have defeated nonconference rivals Ypsilanti Lincoln (105-78) and New Boston Huron (121-58), but have fallen to out-of-league rival, Westland John Glenn (99-85). League foe Wyandotte beat them 98-87 last week.

Against Lincoln, Belleville had three swimmers who were in the double-event winning bracket.

Jennifer Snure carded victories in the 200-yard freestyle (2:12.4) and the 100-yard freestyle (1:00.0), while Vivian Overholt touched in first for the 200-yard individual medley (2:48.50) and the 100-yard breaststroke (1:26.1). Kristin Curtis also had a double in the 100-yard butterfly (1:11.4) and the 100-yard backstroke (1:13.06).

Lindsay Held, a freshman, won the gruelling 500-yard freestyle event in 6:43.72 and Angelica Weise was the winner on the diving boards (134.65 points).

Westlander scores hole-in-one

Despite the fact that a recount is hanging over the recent primary elections for city council, political life must go on.

So, successful candidates in the Sept. 10 election are urged to contact the Ledger Star to set up interviews with ANP staff writer Tom Mooradian.

Obviously, District I candidates are ahead of the game. They are already in the paper today.

Candidates should contact Mooradian at 729-4000 during regular business hours, Monday through Friday. Moreover, if candidates have a favorite photo they wish to be used with the story, please bring that along to the interview. There are no guarantees.

Drains Run Slow?

You'll never have a slow running, or clogged drain again! The secret? Clean drains don't run slow.

The "slows", or periodic clogs, are SIGNALS that a thick layer of GOOK is choking your pipes. Grease, hair, and other waste stick to your pipes, with every use. This gook deposits along the entire length of the pipe. It chokes your pipes gradually, as it gets thicker and thicker.

Conventional drain openers can't fix slow drains. They react chemically on the surface of the gook. To be effective, they must remain in contact with the waste. Even a small tunnel through the gook lets them flow out to the sewer, leaving the gook behind.

In the past, the only way to remove this build-up was to rooter your pipes. An expensive, temporary measure.

Now, with just a few minutes each month, you can easily clean out your pipes... and KEEP them clean with Plumb Clean. It clings, and penetrates deep into the gook. No other product has the Plumb Clean formula. That is what allows it to liquefy even years of build-up. Plumb Clean will clean the entire length of your pipes. It will make your drains run like new, when used as directed. This penetrating action is so revolutionary, we stand behind Plumb Clean with a money-back guarantee! Don't be confused. Plumb Clean is the brand with the money-back guarantee right on the label.

Saves Money. A 1 lb. jar of Plumb Clean holds up to 41 drain treatments. Even if drain openers could fix slow drains, it would take over 10 quart bottles to get the same number of treatments. Plumb Clean costs about 35¢ per treatment. We don't know of anything that cleans drains for less.

Independent laboratory studies show Plumb Clean more effectively breaks down organic waste than all other products tested. So, if your drains have the "slows", act now. Get safe, guaranteed Plumb Clean today!

Navy Seaman Recruit Edward F. Phillips, son of Edward F. Phillips III of Belleville recently completed training at Recruit Training Command, Orlando, Fla.

During the training cycle, recruits are taught general military subjects designed to prepare them for further academic and on-the-job training in one of the 85 occupational fields offered by the Navy.

Phillips is a 1989 graduate of Belleville High School

Airman Eric M. Sharp of Canton Township has graduated from Air Force basic training at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas.

During the six weeks of training the airman studied Air Force mission, organization and customs and received special training in human relations.

In addition, airmen who complete basic training earn credits toward an associate degree through the Community College of the Air Force.

The airman is son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Sharp of Canton.

He is a 1988 graduate of Salem High School in Plymouth.

Rick C. Alvey, son of Nell and Alan Alvey of Belleville entered the United States Air Force Sept. 6.

Upon graduation from the six-week basic military training course at Lackland Air Force Base in Texas, he will receive technical training as an aircraft armament systems specialist and will be assigned to an Air Force duty station.

Alvey is a 1991 graduate of Belleville High School.

Nazneen Ahmed of Canton Township is one of the 106 students beginning medical studies this fall at the Michigan State University College of Human Medicine.

Ahmed, whose parents are

Mohammed B. and Sabes Ahmed of Canton, will study medicine for two years on the East Lansing campus, and then pursue clinical studies in hospitals at one of the six college community campuses in Michigan.

Marine Pfc. Gregory C. Markley, son of Robert T. and Diana J. Markley of Canton Township, recently completed recruit training at Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego.

During the training cycle, recruits are taught the basics of battlefield survival, introduced to typical military daily routine and personal and professional standards.

All recruits participated in an active physical conditioning program and gained proficiency in a variety of military skills including first aid, rifle marksmanship and close-order drill.

Markley is a 1988 graduate of Plymouth-Canton High School.

Navy Fireman Lisa R. Theeck, daughter of Elmer F. and Donna R. Theeck of Canton Township recently reported for duty aboard the submarine tender USS Frank Cable, homeported in Charleston, S.C.

She is a 1988 graduate of Plymouth Salem High School who joined the Navy in September of 1990.

Brian J. Masters of Canton Township made the Ferris State University summer quarter academic honors list which includes 415 students.

To be eligible, a Ferris student must have compiled a 3.50 grade point average in at least 12 quarter hours of work.

Mark K. Angliss of Westland was one of the 415 students to make the Ferris State University summer quarter academic honors list.

To be eligible, a Ferris student must have compiled a 3.50 grade point average in at least 12 quarter hours of work.

Debbie Frickey of Westland has joined United Home Health Services as a Community Health Nurse. In this capacity, she will provide nursing care to homebound patients.

Frickey received her nursing degree from Washtenaw Community College in Ann Arbor and has previously worked in the Renal Unit of Oakwood Hospital. She is married and has two children.

Army Cadet Frederick A. Hockett Jr., son of Joanne Prosser of Romulus, has been accepted into the Corps of Cadets Class of '95 at the U.S. Military Academy in West Point, N.Y.

The acceptance ceremonies culminated six weeks of cadet training where cadets were introduced to military life with emphasis on leadership, duty, honor and country.

The four-year educational institution's curriculum includes engineering, basic and social sciences and humanities.

Hockett is a 1988 graduate of Romulus High Schools.

TRAVEL TIPS

If you're still apprehensive about taking a cruise, I'm going to try to convince you that you're missing one of life's greatest travel experiences. The trick is finding the right cruise for each of our clients; the perfect ship for the Jones family might be entirely wrong for the Smiths.

First of all, let's dispel the boredom myth. You can be as active or as relaxed as you wish. Many ships now have indoor gyms and some even have indoor pools. You can walk, jog or run around deck, take dance lessons, drive golf balls or engage in a host of other activities depending upon the facilities on each ship.

If you're not athletic, you can play bridge, go to the movies, take various classes ranging from dance to arts and crafts, read in a deck chair or in a comfortable lounge, or attend various service club meetings and cocktail parties. You'll never lack for something to do unless you wish to simply relax; if so, no one will bother you.

A cruise is perfect for a couple or family with diverse tastes because you can all indulge your personal preferences while not being too far apart. Even dining allows for countless options including low calorie menus, restricted diets (with advance notice) or "go for broke, I'll have one of each" appetites. It's all included in your basic cruise fare. Just enjoy!

Trust me. Call us and make your next trip a cruise!

An early Halloween

It all started out innocently enough. There I was, bleary-eyed and semi-conscious, barely able to function, staggering through my new kitchen in search of breakfast for myself and the cat when the memory struck like lightning. I had to pick the two huge, beautiful tomatoes observed on my beloved plants the evening before.

Why didn't I pick them then? Because of the snake and the skunk, that's why. Being a homeowner with a yard has been a mixed blessing. On one hand, I trotted off to the nursery and bought two tiny little tomato plants this spring and stuck them rather unceremoniously into the ground.

They grew. And grew. And continued to grow until my husband, bless him, had to actually nail them to the house because they had pulled every other support post out of the ground. I felt somewhat like Jack and his beanstalk. Don't laugh, I had visions of myself leaning out the upstairs window to pick tomatoes, these things got so overwhelming.

Then they began to bear fruit. That was the good part.

The mixed part of the blessing began with the arrival of the snake. He's only about 9-inches or so in length and my spouse assures me he's harmless, but he lives and travels very close to the tomato plants. He LIKES the tomato plants. He also likes hearing me scream like a banshee whenever I see him, so he lurks in the yard just waiting for me to make an appearance. I think he's a juvenile delinquent snake prone to these types of little pranks.

When he isn't in the yard, the skunk is. Now the skunk is a more mature beast, who would just as soon demonstrate his skill with his protective odor as munch on my tomato plants. He visits regularly and I get only the tomatoes he can't reach or doesn't find appealing.

I can't pick tomatoes during the day because of the snake. I can't go out at night because of the skunk. So...early, early morning is the only chance I have at enjoying my produce.

That's why I threw open the patio door and danced into the yard wearing only my nightgown and the remains of the makeup applied the day before. I resembled a cross between a raccoon and a porcupine with my hair standing straight out from my head in an coiffure which can only be accomplished by 8 hours on a pillow. I was a mess.

I know this is true by the looks of horror on the faces of the three construction workers pouring cement foundations at the house next door when they saw me standing there, scratching.

I don't even run that fast from the snake.

From now on, I'm staying in and baking cookies.

- 1/2 cup sifted, all-purpose flour
- 1/4 teaspoon baking soda
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1 cup coarsely chopped walnuts

Grease an 8-inch square pan. Stir together the egg, brown sugar and vanilla. Quickly stir in flour, baking soda and salt. Add walnuts. Spread in pan and bake at 350 degrees for 18 to 20 minutes. (Cookies should be soft in center when taken from oven.) Leave in pan. Cut into 2-inch squares.

Bravo

Pasta!

Pasta is a simple food, popular around the world for its versatility, value and nutrition. It can also be part of a smart, healthy-eating program. The Surgeon General's Report on Nutrition and Health recommends that we increase consumption of complex carbohydrates while decreasing our fat intake. Pasta - made basically from wheat and water - is a perfect choice to meet this recommendation.

Pasta is a nutrient-dense food which by itself contains very little fat. Its calories are even a source of protein, although it requires a little meat sauce, beans or grated cheese to make it a complete protein. Pasta also provides iron, riboflavin, niacin, calcium, thiamine and fiber and has added nutritional value when made with whole wheat and/or spinach.

You can find pasta recipes for every course, from soup to dessert. The challenge is to avoid (or alter) recipes calling for high-fat ingredients that can subvert the low fat nature of pasta. These include recipes with significant amounts of butter, oil, meat, cheese or mayonnaise, or those featuring fried noodles.

Fettuccine and Asparagus in Parmesan Sauce

- 1 tablespoon plus 1 teaspoon margarine
- 1 cup sliced mushrooms
- 1 garlic clove, minced
- 1 cup diagonally sliced steamed asparagus spears
- 1 egg
- 1/4 cup part-skim ricotta cheese
- 1/2 cup skim milk
- 2 ounces grated Parmesan cheese
- Dash each salt and freshly ground pepper
- 2 cups cooked fettuccine (hot)
- 2 tablespoons chopped fresh parsley

In 12-inch skillet heat margarine until bubbly and hot; add mushrooms and garlic and saute briefly, about 2 minutes. Stir in asparagus and set aside.

In small bowl combine egg and ricotta cheese, mixing until smooth; add milk and Parmesan cheese and stir to combine. Sprinkle with salt and pepper and add to skillet, stirring constantly, bring to a slow simmer and cook for about 2 minutes. Add fettuccine and toss to combine; serve sprinkled with parsley.

Green and White Pasta Salad

- 1 garlic clove
- Dash each salt and pepper
- 2 tablespoons plus 2 teaspoons olive oil
- 2 tablespoons chopped fresh basil
- 1 tablespoon chopped fresh parsley
- 1 teaspoon mashed drained canned anchovies (optional)
- 2 cups cooked small macaroni shells (1 cup regular macaroni and 1 cup spinach macaroni)
- 1 medium red bell pepper, seeded and chopped
- 1/4 cup grated Parmesan cheese
- 8 pitted black olives, slice

Using mortar and pestle or back of knife, crush garlic with salt and pepper. In small bowl combine garlic mixture with oil, basil, parsley, and if desired, anchovies; set aside.

In salad bowl combine remaining ingredients; add garlic mixture and toss well to coat. Cover and refrigerate until chilled.

Vegetables 'n' Pasta in Cheese Sauce

- 1 tablespoon margarine
- 1 tablespoon plus 1 1/2 teaspoons all-purpose flour
- 1 cup skim milk
- 1/8 teaspoon each salt, paprika, and powdered

- mustard
- Dash each ground nutmeg (optional) and white pepper
- 2 ounces Gruyere or Swiss cheese, shredded
- 2 cups cooked broccoli florets
- 1 cup each cooked pearl onions and small mushroom caps
- 3/4 cup cooked macaroni shells

In 2-quart saucepan heat margarine until bubbly and hot; add flour and cook over low heat, stirring constantly, for 3 minutes. Remove pan from heat and, using small wire whisk, gradually stir in milk and continue stirring until mixture is smooth; add seasonings and cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until thickened. Reduce heat to low and cook for 10 minutes longer, stirring occasionally; add cheese and cook, stirring constantly, until cheese is melted. Add vegetables and macaroni and cook, stirring gently, until vegetables and shells are thoroughly coated and heated.

Lasagna Rolls

- 1/2 cup part-skim ricotta cheese
- 1 egg, beaten
- 1 ounce shredded mozzarella cheese
- 2 tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese, divided
- 1/8 teaspoon each oregano leaves and basil leaves
- Dash garlic powder
- 4 curly-edged lasagna noodles (12 x 3-inch pieces), cooked according to package directions and drained
- 1/4 cups tomato sauce
- Garnish: Italian (flat-leaf) parsley leaves

1. Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Spray 2 individual casseroles with non-stick cooking spray; set aside.

2. In small bowl combine ricotta cheese, egg, mozzarella cheese, 1 tablespoon Parmesan cheese, and the seasonings, mixing well.

3. Place cooked lasagna on a damp towel and spoon 1/4 of the cheese mixture lengthwise along the center of each noodle; starting from narrow end, carefully roll each noodle to enclose filling.

4. Place 2 rolls in each sprayed casserole and spoon 2 tablespoons sauce over each roll; sprinkle each roll with 3/4 teaspoon Parmesan cheese and bake until thoroughly heated, 35 to 40 minutes. Service garnished with parsley.

Complete Pasta Salad

- 2 cups of mixed frozen vegetables
- 1 1/2 teaspoons lemon juice
- 1 tablespoon vegetable oil
- 2 oz. part skim mozzarella cheese, grate
- 2 cups of cooked noodles: Rotine, Rotelle or Tortilini (preferably whole wheat)
- Fresh ground pepper, to taste (optional)
- Green onion tops, chopped (optional)

Place the frozen vegetables in a colander and run under cold tap water until vegetables are slightly defrosted - do not defrost completely!

Drain the vegetables, place them in a large bowl and add the oil and lemon juice. Let the mixture marinate while the pasta is cooking.

Boil the noodles al dente (still firm, don't overcook!) and drain well; cool.

Add the cooled noodles to the marinated vegetables and mix well. Stir in the grated cheese, and, if desired, add fresh ground pepper and chopped green onion tops. Serve immediately, or refrigerate until serving time.

This will produce four servings of about one cup each, with each having about 6 grams of fat and 244 calories.

Spaghetti with Italian Meat Sauce

- 1 tablespoons plus 1 teaspoon olive or vegetable oil
- 1 cup each diced onions and red or green bell peppers
- 2 garlic cloves, minced
- 4 cups canned whole tomatoes, pureed in blender
- 1 pound broiled ground beef, crumbled
- 1/4 cup dry red wine
- 2 tablespoons each chopped fresh Italian (flat-leaf) parsley and tomato paste
- 1 bay leaf
- 1/4 teaspoon each oregano leaves, anise seed, salt, and pepper
- 2 tablespoons plus 2 teaspoons grate Parmesan cheese, divided

In 12-inch nonstick skillet or 4-quart saucepan heat oil over medium-high heat; add onions, bell peppers, and garlic and saute until onion is translucent. Add remaining ingredients except spaghetti and cheese; stir to combine. Reduce heat and let simmer, stirring occasionally, until sauce is thick, 1 1/2 to 2 hours. Remove and discard bay leaf before serving.

Fettuccine Supreme

- 1/2 cup part-skim ricotta cheese
- 1/4 cup skim milk
- 1 tablespoon plus 1 teaspoon margarine
- 3 ounces thinly sliced prosciutto (Italian-style ham), diced
- 1 garlic clove, minced
- 1 cup cooked chopped broccoli
- 2 cups cooked fettuccine
- 1 ounce grated Parmesan cheese
- Dash white pepper
- Garnish:

- 2 tablespoons chopped fresh parsley

In blender container combine ricotta cheese and milk and process until smooth; set aside.

In 9-inch skillet heat margarine until bubbly and hot; add prosciutto and garlic and saute until garlic is golden, about 1 minute. Add broccoli and cheese mixture and cook over medium heat until sauce begins to bubble. Reduce heat and add remaining ingredients except parsley; cook, stirring and tossing gently, until fettuccine is thoroughly coated with sauce. Serve sprinkled with parsley.

Noodle Salad

- 1 cup cooked egg bows (bow-tie noodles)
- 1 medium tomatoe, diced
- 1/4 cup each diced celery and thinly sliced scallions (green onions)
- 1 tablespoon bottled red wine vinegar and oil salad dressing
- Dash each salt and pepper

In salad bowl combine all ingredients; toss to coat with dressing. Cover and refrigerate for at least 1 hour. Toss again just before serving.

Spinach Pasta with Tuna Sauce

- 2 tablespoons margarine
- 1 garlic clove, sliced
- 1 cups thinly sliced mushrooms
- 1/2 cup each diced onion and green bell pepper
- 2 teaspoons all-purpose flour
- 1 cup skim milk
- 3/4 cup water
- 2 packets instant chicken broth and seasoning mix
- 12 ounces drained canned chunk white tuna, flaked
- 1 tablespoon each chopped fresh basil and Italian (flat-leaf) parsley
- 2 cups cooked spinach pasta (hot)
- 1 tablespoon plus 1 teaspoon grated Parmesan cheese

In 12-inch nontick skillet heat margarine until bubbly and hot; add garlic and saute until golden. Using slotted spoon, remove and discard garlic.

To same skillet add mushrooms, onion, and green pepper and saute until onion is lightly browned. Sprinkle vegetables with four and stir quickly to combine; cook, stirring constantly, for 1 minute. Gradually stir in milk; add water and broth mix and, stirring constantly, for 1 minute. Reduce heat and simmer, stirring, until mixture thickens. Stir in tuna, basil, and parsley and cook until thoroughly heated. Pour sauce over hot pasta and sprinkle with cheese.

Corvette debuts for 1992

The most famous sports car in America, the Chevrolet Corvette, sets a new standard for world-class all-weather performance for 1992.

The ZR-1 special performance package returns for its third model year in '92, but the biggest news is the three major features that distinguish the 1992 Corvette.

A new 350-cubic-inch V8 engine—dubbed the "LT1"—ushers in a second generation of Chevy small-block power. It delivers 300 horsepower at 5,000 RPM—the highest net horsepower for any production-car small-block in Chevrolet history—50 HP more than the L98 engine it replaces. The performance equals or exceeds existing world-class V8 engine standards for mass, size, fuel consumption, emissions and cold start, claim the engineers who designed the engine.

A sophisticated traction control strategy called Acceleration Slip Regulation (ASR) is designed to work with the existing anti-lock brakes to provide improved acceleration and enhanced vehicle stability in all weather conditions, thus making Corvette a "car for all seasons." ASR is one of the most sophisticated traction control systems now available. It functionally integrates with three different vehicle systems—engine timing, throttle and brakes—and it is also calibrated to deliver a full measure of power to the pavement, a spokesman said.

New Goodyear Eagle GS-C high-performance tires are a '92 Corvette exclusive. The tires have a directional and asymmetrical tread pattern which delivers superb wet and dry handling performance, wearability, cornering force and noise suppression.

Inside the Corvette, the instrument panel has a new appearance to improve the driver's comprehension of vital vehicle information. The most noticeable change is the higher placement of the speedometer in the display area.

Outside, Corvette gets four new exterior choices, three new leather interior colors and a new dark blue cloth convertible top.

The 1992 Chevrolet Corvette boasts a new generation 300-horsepower, 350-cubic-inch, V8 engine as standard equipment, but even with increased power, the Corvette gets equal or better fuel economy than last year, according to company spokesmen. A sophisticated traction control strategy debuts to make Corvette a car for all seasons, the manufacturer claims.

Chrysler trains with videodiscs

Chrysler Corporation, one of the leading developers on interactive multi-media for training, has introduced its fall product lineup with 18 new Level II interactive videodisc programs. These entertaining, user-friendly programs provide a wealth of product information and will help salespeople in 4,800 Chrysler-Plymouth, Dodge and Jeep/Eagle dealerships answer customer's questions on product feature benefits.

"The videodiscs allow salespeople to navigate to suit a particular need," explained Roberta Beaudet, vice-president, Director of Production at Ross Roy Communications. Project Manager Nancy Sheaffer added, "Because information is easily accessed, the program fits very well into a salesperson's busy schedule."

Each videodisc includes demonstrations and feature/benefit product information segments on interior, exterior, powertrain and chassis features, with emphasis on safety and competitive advantages.

"The videodisc is a superior training medium because it is interactive and the retention level of information is greater," observed Peter Hollinshead, sales promotion specialist at Chrysler. "It presents specific model features, and then stops and quizzes the salesperson on the information just presented. If the viewer responds correctly, they can proceed to the next part of the program, but if the response is incorrect, the disc loops back and repeats that section."

The motion video was filmed at diverse locations in Michigan, Utah, New Mexico, Georgia and California to represent the diverse geographic settings of Chrysler customers and dealer locations. The settings reflect the Chrysler corporate advertising theme, "Rediscover America."

Dealer offers new service plan

Airport employees who have a General Motors vehicle are eligible for a new service program provided by a Mark Chevrolet in Wayne.

Mark introduced an Employee Service Program which offers an easy alternative to General Motors Vehicle Maintenance.

Airport employees are asked to leave their vehicles for service at Mark before reporting for work. A free shuttle bus, serving the entire airport area, takes the customer to and from work, eliminating all the waiting time usually involved with having a car or truck serviced.

"Rather than waste valuable time on an off day, employees can take care of their vehicles while they work," said Charlie Cabana, general manager for Mark Chevrolet. "The program is simply cost effective and convenient way to receive quality service, without the hassle of waiting."

Mark Chevrolet is located at 33200 Michigan Ave. in Wayne. Hours for the new service program are from 7:30 a.m. until 8 p.m. Monday and Thursday. Information or appointments are available by phoning 722-9100.
